

Summer Meet-up

The annual JEB Summer Meet-up is this year taking place in the picturesque town of Buxton, Derbyshire. Right in the middle of the beautiful Peak District National Park, Buxton is an historic spa-town with elegant architecture, interesting shops and a wide range of pubs and restaurants.

The JEB meeting will be taking place on Saturday 19th and Sunday 20th July 2008 and we would love to see you there. Buxton is easily accessible by public transport, having a direct rail link with Manchester. Trains depart Manchester on a regular basis with the journey taking around one hour and costing in the region of £8. More information is available from <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk> Of course, Buxton is also easily accessible by car and you can read more about the town and get directions at the local website: <http://www.visitbuxton.co.uk>

This is a weekend event, and therefore JEB have been investigating accommodation possibilities for the Saturday night. Buxton is a busy and popular location, making it advisable to book well in advance. Some JEBanoj have arranged to stay at the Hawthorn Farm Guest House, a pleasant-looking B&B not far from the town centre with prices in the region of £27ppn. If you are interested in joining us and would like accommodation, I urge you to get in touch with us as soon as possible so that we can help you to find a suitable room. Unfortunately, whilst JEB is happy to provide advice we cannot take responsibility for booking rooms and we do not guarantee that you will find somewhere to stay if you turn up on the day without having made prior arrangements. Don't forget that you may be eligible to have the cost of the weekend refunded by NoJEF; see <http://www.jeb.org.uk/attend-eo-events-for-free> for further details!
